Monique Seefried Speaker Series on Education as a Human Right

The Center for Language Education and its Education as a Human Right project at the University of North Georgia is pleased to sponsor the Monique Seefried Speaker Series on Education as a Human Right. Dr. Monique Seefried is a lifelong proponent of Education as a Human Right and founder of the Center for the Advancement and Study of International Education (CASIE) in Atlanta, Georgia.

The first individual in the Monique Seefried speaker series is Edgar Miranda. Born in Puerto Rico, raised in New York, Edgar Miranda is an educator with 40 years’ experience working in public and private schools in New York, Atlanta, Bulgaria, and Costa Rica. His talk on February 19th is titled: “The purpose of education in a culturally diverse period of change.”

UNG students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.

Date: Thursday, February 19th, 2015
Time: 12:30 – 2:00 p.m.
Location: David Potter Special Collection Room, 3rd floor of the Library Technology Center, UNG-Dahlonega campus.

Refreshments will be provided.