New Your BFF's People To Know Who Will Help You Be Successful:

Health Care:
The Health Center is ready to provide medical services to students with the purpose of preventing disease and improving health and wellness.

Academic Affairs:
Academic affairs promotes quality and access to University Academic Programs.

Admissions:
Admissions Officers are ready to help with recruitment, enrollment, college applications, choosing a major, and placement.

Testing Center:
The Testing Center aids in students' success by administering assessments to determine if students are eligible to earn college credits.

Career Services:
Career Services provides a variety of services designed to assist students:
- Choose a Major
- Explore Careers
- Write a Resume
- Browse Career Library
- Search for Jobs
- Prepare for Job Interviews
- Transfer Assistance
- Internship Support
- Self Assessment

Advisors:
Academic Advisors are ready to help with course scheduling, degree requirements, academic counseling and academic strategies to ensure progress and persistence.

Office of Multicultural Student Affairs:
The Office of Multicultural Affairs is ready to help provide leadership to enhance cultural understanding and help students acquire the knowledge and skills to live in a global world.

Professors:
College Professors teach and advise students. They also conduct research and serve to enhance the quality of the university.

Bursar:
The Office of the Bursar can help with student payments, student refunds, scholarship billing and student account record management.

Financial Aid:
Financial Aid Officers are ready to help with FAFSA Completion and Financial Aid inquiries to obtain funding for college.

Registrar's Office:
The Registrar's Office is ready to assist students with important forms and processes related to student registration, enrollment and records.

For more information, contact Sheila Caldwell, Director for Complete College Georgia at UNG, sheila.caldwell@ung.edu