

The following cadets have received academic and military awards during the 2012-13 academic year at the University of North Georgia.

GEORGIA

Cadet 2nd Lt. David Bonham, the son of Dan and Camille Bonham of Acworth, Ga., has been awarded the Military Order of Foreign Wars Academic Award, presented to a contracted senior cadet who has a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher. Bonham, a junior majoring in political science, also received the Special Forces Association of Military Excellence Award, given to a cadet who is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne School, has a 3.0 cumulative GPA in academics and 3.5 cumulative GPA in military science, and must demonstrate outstanding leadership qualities.

Cadet Command Sgt. Maj. Brooke Mazur, the daughter of Brendan Mazur of Alpharetta, Ga., and Kristen Mazur of Canton, Ga., has been awarded the Association of the United States Army (AUSA) Award, given to the military science III cadet who is in the top 10 percent of his or her ROTC class, top 25 percent of his or her academic class, and best exemplifies the values of AUSA. Mazur, who is majoring in criminal justice, also received the Fred Kellar Military Scholarship, established in memory of Lt. Gen. (Ret) Fred Kellar.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Grace Middleton, the daughter of David and Gayle Middleton of Alpharetta, Ga., has been awarded the Fincher-Loughridge Scholarship and the military science I Georgia Department of the Military Order of the World Wars Award, presented to military science III, military science II, and military science I cadets who have excelled in all military and scholastic aspects of the ROTC program.. She is majoring in exercise science.

Cadet Sgt. 1st Class Alissa Aiken, the daughter of Melissa and Christopher Aiken of Athens, Ga., has been awarded the Claude Williams, Jr. Cadet Scholarship and the military science III Veterans of Foreign Wars Award, which is awarded to the cadet who has demonstrated excellent academic and military knowledge. She is majoring in criminal justice.

Cadet Capt. Ian Sellers, the son of Phillip and Bronwyn Sellers of Atlanta, Ga., has been awarded the Military Officer's Association of America Award. This award goes to a cadet of high moral character and loyalty with the exceptional potential for military leadership. Cadet Sellers is majoring in criminal justice.

Cadet 2nd Lt. Laurino Hooker, the son of Laurino and Maria Hooker of Panama City, Panama, who currently reside in Augusta, Ga., has been awarded the Old Guard of the Gate City Guard Award. The award recipient is a military science III cadet with outstanding leadership, military achievement, and personal character.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Christopher Singletary, the son of Eric and Shannon Singletary of Augusta, Ga., has been awarded the A. Webb Roberts Scholarship, presented to the cadet who has agreed to serve on active duty or reserve duty as a commissioned officer in one of the armed forces of the United States. Cadet Singletary is a world languages major with a concentration in Arabic.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Steve Agyeman, the son of Alice and Samuel Agyeman of Austell, Ga., has been awarded the Colonel Michael D. Pyott Memorial Scholarship. This award is presented to the cadet who best embodies the values of the University of North Georgia Corps of Cadets. The recipient must be a well-rounded cadet, who demonstrates strong leadership potential in a wide range of campus activities, and shows the potential to make a significant impact after he or she graduates. The recipient must also be actively involved in the ROTC program, hold a leadership position in the Corps and other student organizations, be in the upper third of their military class, consistently pass the Army Physical Fitness Test, and must have impeccable character and a desire to serve others. Agyeman is majoring in criminal justice.

Cadet Sgt. 1st Class Lane Hodnett, the son of David and Carmen Hodnett of Buford, Ga., has been awarded the Capt. Jeremy Chandler Leadership Scholarship. The recipient of this award must be a member of the Corps of Cadets, on a commissioning track, and a member of Ranger Challenge, and must have demonstrated potential for leadership. Hodnett is majoring in business management.

Cadet Capt. Alexander Sweatt, the son of Greg and Julie Sweatt of Buford, Ga., has been awarded the National Defense Industrial Association Award. This award is given to the cadet who is in the top 50 percent of the academic class and top 20 percent of the advanced camp platoon, has a B or higher in all military science classes, participates in athletic or campus programs, and demonstrates outstanding leadership qualities. Sweatt is majoring in biology.

Cadet Pfc. Brent Anderson, the son of Larry and Karen Anderson of Canton, Ga., has been awarded the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association Award. The AFCEA award is presented to the cadet who is the top mathematics or computer science student in the Corps of Cadets. Anderson is majoring in physics.

Cadet 2nd Lt. Ashley Bennett, the daughter of Thomas and Xiomara Bennett of Canton, Ga., has been awarded the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution Award. This award goes to a senior who has demonstrated excellence in academics, character, discipline, and leadership ability. The cadet must be in the graduating class and be in the top 25 percent of his or her academic and ROTC class. Bennett is majoring in biology.

Cadet Asia Martin, the daughter of Joseph and Cristine Martin of Canton, Ga., has been awarded the A. Webb Roberts Scholarship. This scholarship is presented to the cadet who has agreed to serve on active or reserve duty as a commissioned officer in one of the armed forces of the United States. Martin is majoring in biology/pre-vet.

Cadet Lt. Col. Michael Glass, the son of Lt. Col. (Ret) Scott and Paige Glass of Chickamauga, Ga., has been awarded the military science IV American Legion Scholastic Excellence Award, presented to the cadet in the top 10 percent of his or her academic class, top 25 percent in his or her ROTC class, and has demonstrated qualities of leadership. Glass also received the military science IV Department of the Army Superior Cadet Award, which is given to the top cadets in the military science IV, military science III, military science II and military science I classes. These cadets are in the top 25 percent of their academic and ROTC class, and have demonstrated superior officer potential. He has received his bachelor's in history and has commissioned as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army's armor branch.

Cadet 1st Sgt. Thaddeus Black, the son of Steve and Michelle Black of Clayton, Ga., has been awarded the Military Officer's Association of America Award. This award goes to a cadet of high moral character and loyalty with the exceptional potential for military leadership. Black is majoring in international affairs with a Middle East concentration.

Cadet Sgt. 1st Class William Boyd, the son of Linda and William Boyd of Dacula, Ga., has been awarded the military science II Georgia Department of Military Orders of World Wars Award. The award is given to military science III, military science II, and military science I cadets who excel in all military and scholastic aspects of the ROTC program. Boyd is majoring in criminal justice.

Cadet Capt. Benjamin Garner, the son of Michael and Julia Garner of Dawsonville, Ga., has been awarded the Military Officer's Association of America Award, given to a cadet of high moral character and loyalty with the exceptional potential for military leadership. Garner, who is majoring in history and will commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army's field artillery branch, also received the Veterans of Foreign Wars military science IV Award, which is presented to the cadet who has demonstrated excellent academic and military knowledge.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Alexander Johnson, the son of Bob Johnson of Decatur, Ga., has been awarded the Harold and William McEver Scholarship. The recipient of this award must best exemplify dedication to the Corps of Cadets and professionalism. Johnson is an accounting major.

Cadet 1st Sgt. Mitchell Watson, the son of Allen and Tamara Watson of Fayetteville, Ga., has received an award from the General Society of the War of 1812, which is given to a cadet who must be in the top 20 percent of their academic class, top 10 percent of the ROTC class, plus in the 10 percent of their class in aptitude for military service. The recipient must also demonstrate qualities of academic excellence, leadership, military discipline, dependability, and patriotism. Watson, who is majoring in political science, also received the Claude Williams Jr. Cadet Scholarship.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Jonathan Strickland, the son of Jon and Tracy Strickland of Gainesville, Ga., has been awarded the Maj. Kitefre K. Oboho Military Leadership Scholarship. This award is given to the cadet who best demonstrates leadership ability, service to the nation, state, community, and his or her desire to excel in all areas of military and academic endeavors. This award is also to honor and recognize a cadet who works hard, demonstrates professionalism, and is dedicated to the Corps of Cadets. Strickland is majoring in international affairs with a Middle East concentration.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Alexander Harvie, the son of Matt and Kelly Harvie of Grayson, Ga., has been awarded the A. Webb Roberts Scholarship. This scholarship is presented to the cadet who has agreed to serve on active or reserve duty as a commissioned officer in one of the armed forces of the United States. Harvie is a business finance major.

Cadet 1st Sgt. Jared Cole Gregory, the son of Lt. Col. (Ret) Bradley Clark Gregory and Linda Ann Gregory of Jefferson, Ga., has been awarded the Christian L. Carreras Scholarship. This award is presented to a cadet who has served, or is currently serving in the U.S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, Coast Guard Reserve, or National Guard, with the first consideration given to a cadet who has served or is currently serving in the United States Marine Corps. Cadet Gregory is majoring in business marketing.

Cadet Pfc. Nathaniel W. Smith, the son of David Smith of Johns Creek, Ga., has been awarded the Association of the United States Army (AUSA) Leadership Scholarship Award. Smith is a member of the Georgia Army National Guard and has deployed three times since he became a cadet. This award is presented to a cadet who is a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom or Operation Enduring Freedom and must be pursuing a commission. Smith is majoring in criminal justice.

Cadet Capt. Nicholas Bava, the son of Peter and Elizabeth Bava of Lawrenceville, Ga., has been awarded the Reserve Officers Association Award for military science IV. This award goes to cadets who are enrolled in ROTC, desire to obtain a commission, and are in the top 10 percent of their ROTC class. Bava is majoring in mathematics.

Cadet Command Sgt. Maj. Blake Schaper, the son of Barbra Schaper of Lawrenceville, Ga., has been awarded the military science III Department of the Army Superior Cadet Award, given to the top cadets in military science IV, military science III, military science II and military science I classes. These cadets are in the top 25 percent of their academic and ROTC class, and have demonstrated superior officer potential. Schaper is majoring in biology.

Cadet Capt. John Healy, the son of Richard LaPerchia of Bronx, N.Y., and Rebecca Lee of Marietta, Ga., has been awarded the Association of the United States Army (AUSA) Military History Award. This award is awarded to the military science cadet who excels at military history. Healy has received his bachelor's degree in history and has commissioned as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army's field artillery branch.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Nathaniel Stowers, the son of Dan Stowers of McDonough, Ga., and Carmin McCorkle of Register, Ga., has been awarded the Sons of the American Revolution Award, given to a military science I cadet who exemplifies a high degree of military excellence. Stowers is majoring in psychology.

Cadet Skylar Donovan, the son of Donna and Grover Bagley, and of Patrick Donovan and Pamela Ratickjack of Milledgeville, Ga., has been awarded the Fincher-Loughridge Scholarship. Donovan is majoring in international affairs.

Cadet Capt. Robert Waters, the son of Lee and Regina Waters of Newnan, Ga., has been awarded the Military Order of Foreign Wars Leadership Award. This award is awarded to a senior cadet who is currently serving in a leadership position and has a minimum GPA of 3.0 or higher. Waters has received his bachelor's in business marketing and has commissioned as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army's aviation branch.

Cadet Spec. Nathaniel Cutler, the son of Joe Cook and Virginia Cook of Peachtree City, Ga., has been awarded the Nicholas P. Berrena Award, given annually to the most outstanding member of the Aggressor Platoon. The recipient is selected by the members of the Aggressor Platoon and is awarded to the individual who best exemplifies leadership, teamwork, and expertise in small unit tactics and patrolling. The award is in honor of Cadet Nicholas P. Berrena.

Cadet First Sgt. Kevin Landry, the son of Scott and Debra Landry of Powder Springs, Ga., has been awarded the A. Webb Roberts Scholarship, which is presented to the cadet who has agreed to serve on active or reserve duty as a commissioned officer in one of the armed forces of the United States. Landry is majoring in physical education.

Cadet Pfc. Gentlemen Baker, the son of Brian and Nancy Baker of Richmond Hill, Ga., has been awarded the Richard F. Helmbold Award for Academic Excellence, which is presented to an outstanding freshman cadet completing his or her freshman year with a GPA of 3.0 or better. Baker, who is majoring in criminal justice, also received the military science I Veterans of Foreign Wars Award, which is given to a cadet who has demonstrated excellent academic and military knowledge.

Cadet Lt. Col. Jacob Shealey, the son of Barbara Shealey and Jose Fontanez of Richmond Hill, Ga., has been awarded the Association of Military Colleges and Schools of the United States Award. This award goes to a senior cadet demonstrating leadership ability, military excellence and academic achievement. The award is given to only six cadets throughout the United States of America. Cadet Shealey is majoring in international affairs, and will commission as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army's field artillery branch.

Cadet Sgt. 1st Class Jackson Henry, the son of Harold and Jeanne Henry of Roswell, Ga., has been awarded the North Georgia Eagle Leadership Award Scholarship. The cadet who receives this scholarship must be in good standing with the Commandant of Cadets and Professor of Military Science, must be pursuing a commission in the U.S. Armed Forces, and must demonstrate leadership potential and high moral character. Henry is majoring in English.

Cadet Sgt. 1st Class Richard Henry, the son of Harold and Jeanne Henry of Roswell, Ga., has been awarded the North Georgia Eagle Leadership Award Scholarship. The cadet who receives this scholarship must be in good standing with the Commandant of Cadets and Professor of Military Science, must be pursuing a commission in the U.S. Armed Forces, and must demonstrate leadership potential and high moral character. Henry is majoring in business management.

Cadet First Sgt. Ryan Ault, the son of Robert and Christie Ault of Savannah, Ga., has been awarded the Special Forces Association Military Excellence Award. This award is given to a cadet who is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne School, has a 3.0 cumulative GPA in academics and 3.5 cumulative GPA in military science, and must demonstrate outstanding leadership qualities. Ault is majoring in criminal justice.

Cadet Sgt. 1st Class Bryan Moros, the son of Chief Warrant Officer 5 (Ret) Alberto and Madeline Moros of Savannah, Ga., has been awarded the North Georgia Eagle Leadership Award Scholarship. The cadet who receives this scholarship must be in good standing with the Commandant of Cadets and Professor of Military Science, must be pursuing a commission in the U.S. Armed Forces, and must demonstrate leadership potential and high moral character.

Cadet 1st Sgt. Joshua Barnes, the son of Joy Lyle and Clement Barnes of Shiloh, Ga., has been awarded the North Georgia Eagle Leadership Award Scholarship. The cadet who receives this scholarship must be in good standing with the Commandant of Cadets and Professor of Military Science, must be pursuing a commission in the U.S. Armed Forces, and must demonstrate leadership potential and high moral character.

Cadet 1st Lt. Herbert Pfeiffer, the son of Herbert and Debra Pfeiffer of Shiloh, Ga., has been awarded the 1st Lt. J.T. May Memorial Scholarship. The recipient of this scholarship must be in good standing and is also a member of the Mountain Order of Colombo. The cadet must be a person who emulates the character traits of duty, dedication, determination, loyalty, and honor—the same traits that 1st Lt. J.T. May demonstrated in his daily life as a member of the Corps of Cadets and the Mountain Order of Colombo. Pfeiffer is majoring in psychology and will commission as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army.

Cadet Pfc. Shay Patton, the son of Robbie Patton and Shane Hollis of Toccoa, Ga., has been awarded the Steve Pavlica USMA '79 Memorial Scholarship. The cadet who receives this scholarship is hardworking and diligent in pursuing a college degree and a commission. Patton is a freshman majoring in criminal justice.

Cadet 1st Lt. Megan Churning, the daughter of Mark Churning and Traci Hanning of Washington, Ga., has been awarded the Gretchen Blaschke Scholarship and Golden Feather Award, presented in honor of Gretchen Blaschke, the first woman to qualify for membership in the Aggressor Platoon. The recipient of this award is a female cadet who has made a significant contribution to the Corps of Cadets. Churning is majoring in international affairs with a Middle East concentration.

Cadet Pfc. Noah West, the son of April White and Shelton West of Washington, Ga., has been awarded the Emerging Leader Scholarship. This award is presented to a cadet who resides in a UNG military residence hall, serves the Corps of Cadets in a leadership position, and who exemplifies the value of integrity, academic achievement, and professional respect for his or her subordinates. West is a computer science major.

Cadet Maj. James Rice, the son of Kirk and Dianne Rice of Zebulon, Ga., has been awarded the Military Officer's Association of America Award, which goes to a cadet of high moral character and loyalty with the exceptional potential for military leadership. Rice is majoring in biology/pre-med.

ARIZONA

Cadet Sgt. 1st Class Brandon Blaylock, the son of Brian and Lisa Blaylock of Phoenix, Ariz., earned the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America Award, which goes to a military science I or II cadet in the top 25 percent of his or her ROTC class. Blaylock, who is majoring in history, also received the David B. "Snake" Wood Class of 1969 Memorial Merit Award and Scholarship, given to a recipient who displays impeccable morals and character and is an outstanding member of his or her community, following the legacy Wood left behind.

FLORIDA

Cadet Command Sgt. Maj. Josh Wooten of Bartow, Fla., the son of James Wooten of Fort Meade, Md., and Diane Wooten of Bartow, Fla., has been awarded the Claude Williams Jr. Cadet Scholarship. Wooten, who is majoring in criminal justice, also received the military science III Georgia Department of the Military Order of the World Wars award, which is presented to military science III, military science II, and military science I cadets who have excelled in all military and scholastic aspects of the ROTC program.

Cadet Kelsey Hagler, the daughter of Jean Hagler of Bradenton, Fla., has been awarded the Military Order of the Purple Heart Award. This award, which consists of a gold medal, ribbon and certificate, is presented to the cadet who demonstrates a positive attitude towards ROTC, holds a leadership position in the Corps, active in campus and school activities, and must have a GPA of 3.0 or better. Hagler received her bachelor's in criminal justice, and has commissioned as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army Adjutant Generals Corps.

Cadet 2nd Lt. Jessie Betts, the son of Dale and Kathie Betts of Cape Coral, Fla., has been awarded the military science III American Legion Scholastic Excellence Award, presented to the cadet who is in the top 10 percent of his or her academic class, top 25 percent in his or her ROTC class, and has demonstrated qualities of leadership. Betts, a junior majoring in criminal justice, also received the 1st Lt. Noah Harris Memorial Scholarship, presented in honor of 1st Lt. Noah Harris.

Cadet Pfc. Callie Manning, the daughter of Kimberly Manning of Cocoa, Fla., has been awarded the military science I Department of the Army Superior Cadet Award, given to the top cadets in the military science IV, military science III, military science II and military science I classes. These cadets are in the top 25 percent of their academic and ROTC class, and have demonstrated superior officer potential. She is majoring in criminal justice.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Matthew McCutcheon, the son of Sarah Roslie and Harry McCutcheon of Jacksonville, Fla., has been awarded the military science II Department of the Army Superior Cadet Award. This is awarded to the top cadets in the military science IV, military science III, military science II and military science I classes. These cadets are in the top 25 percent of their academic and ROTC class, and have demonstrated superior officer potential. McCutcheon is a sophomore majoring in Chinese.

Cadet Maj. Taylor Beebe, the daughter of Joe and Cindy Beebe of Lynn Haven, Fla., has been awarded the Fincher-Loughridge Scholarship and the Society of the U.S. Daughters of 1812 Award, which is given to a cadet who has demonstrated qualities of academic excellence, leadership, military discipline, dependability, patriotism, and upright character in speech habits that exemplify the ideals upon which our nation was founded. She is majoring in computer information systems.

Cadet Pfc. Cody R. Waits, the son of Lynne and Spencer Waits of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., has been awarded the Silver Rifle Award. This award is given to the Blue Ridge Rifles member who exemplifies the Rifles' high standards of discipline, initiative, proficiency, personal appearance, and esprit de corps.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Joseph Hurst, the son of Marcel and Katherine Hurst of Sarasota, Fla., has received the Chad Alessio Award. The recipient of this award is selected by the members of Mountain Order of Colombo, and must be an outstanding member of the Mountain Order of Colombo. He is majoring in business management.

Cadet Col. Michael Carty, the son of Michael and Maxine Carty of Sunrise, Fla., has been awarded the General Douglas MacArthur Award, given to the cadet who is a senior cadet who best represents the ideals and leadership philosophy of General of the Army Douglas MacArthur. The recipient must also be in good standing both academically and militarily. This award is one of the most prestigious leadership awards presented to Army ROTC cadets across the nation. Carty, who is majoring in chemistry/pre-med, also received the National Sojourners Award, given to a cadet who is commissioning into one of the branches of military service.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Mason Brauzer, the son of Mitch and Cindy Brauzer of Tampa, Fla., has been awarded the Christian L. Carreras Scholarship, presented to a cadet who has served, or is currently serving in the U.S. armed forces, with the first consideration given to a cadet who has served or is currently serving in the United States Marine Corps. Brauzer, who is majoring in history, also received the Scottish Rite of Free Masonry Award, given to a sophomore or junior cadet who has contributed the most among cadets on campus to encourage and demonstrate patriotism by deeds or conduct during the participation in extracurricular activities or community projects. The recipient must also have demonstrated a potential for outstanding leadership by exhibiting qualities of dependability, good character, self-discipline, good citizenship, and patriotism.

Cadet First Sgt. Ariel Rolle, the daughter of Rachel Rolle of West Palm Beach, Fla., has been awarded the Fred Kellar Military Scholarship, established in memory of Lieutenant General (Ret) Fred Kellar. Rolle is a business marketing major.

ILLINOIS

Cadet Lt. Col. Kenneth Fischer, the son of Mark and Terry Fischer of Rockford, Ill., has been awarded the military science IV American Legion Scholastic Excellence Award. This award is presented to the cadet in the top 10 percent of his or her academic class, top 25 percent in his or her ROTC class, and has demonstrated qualities of leadership. Fischer is a senior majoring in history and will commission as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army's aviation branch.

NEW JERSEY

Cadet Pfc. Jason Dela Rosa, the son of Antonio Dela Rosa of Piscataway, N.J. and Teresita Dela Rosa of Somerset, N.J., has been awarded the military science III American Legion Scholastic Excellence Award. This award is presented to the cadet in the top 10 percent of his or her academic class, top 25 percent in his or her ROTC class, and has demonstrated qualities of leadership. Dela Rosa is a junior majoring in music education.

NEW MEXICO

Cadet 2nd Lt. Colton Mercer, the son of William and Tammy Mercer of Albuquerque, N.M., has been awarded the military science III Reserve Officers Association Award. This award goes to cadets who are enrolled in ROTC, desire to obtain a commission, and are in the top 10 percent of their ROTC class. Mercer is majoring in international affairs.

NEW YORK

Cadet Staff Sgt. Lucas Mazza, the son of Joe Mazza of Macedon, N.Y., has been awarded the Military Officer's Association of America Award. This award goes to a cadet of high moral character and loyalty with the exceptional potential for military leadership. Mazza is majoring in history with a teacher certification.

NORTH CAROLINA

Cadet Capt. Abigail Estrada, the daughter of Robert and Lisa Estrada of Charlotte, N.C., has been awarded the United Services Automobile Association of America (USAA) Award. This award is given to the cadet who demonstrates exceptional service to community, school, and military. The individual must exemplify honor, spirit, and dedication to the betterment of ROTC on campuses across the nation. Estrada is majoring in criminal justice with a forensics concentration and will commission as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army's field artillery branch.

Cadet Sgt. 1st Class Nickolas Hendry, the son of Chief Warrant Officer 4 (Ret) David Hendry and Heather Hendry of Fayetteville, N.C., has been awarded the Military Officer's Association of America Award. This award goes to a cadet of high moral character and loyalty with the exceptional potential for military leadership. Hendry is majoring in criminal justice with a forensics concentration.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Sophie Schell, the daughter of Marcus and Dianna Schell of Raeford, N.C., has been awarded the American Legion Department of Georgia Jep Tanksley Scholarship, given to the cadet whose achievements exemplify the patriotic ideals of duty, honor, and country. Schell, who is majoring in criminal justice, also received the military science II Reserve Officers Association Award, which goes to cadets who are enrolled in ROTC, plan to commission, and are in the top 10 percent of their ROTC class.

Cadet Capt. Jessica Elledge, the daughter of Gabrielle Gambille of Sanford, N.C., has been awarded the Gen. Raymond G. Davis Patriot's Award. The award is given to the cadet who excels in military science and tactics and epitomizes the leadership characteristics of Medal of Honor winner, Gen. Raymond G. Davis. Elledge has received her bachelor's degree in Chinese and has commissioned as a second lieutenant into the U.S. Army's Air Defense Artillery branch.

OHIO

Cadet Pvt. David Day, the son of Julie Day of Germantown, Ohio, has been awarded the military science II Veterans of Foreign Wars Award. This award is awarded to the cadet who has demonstrated excellent academic and military knowledge. Day is majoring in criminal justice.

VIRGINIA

Cadet Master Sgt. Bryce Thompson, the son of Col. John and Lashelle Thompson of Lonton, Va., has been awarded the Maj. Kevin M. Jenrette Scholarship. The recipient of this award must demonstrate loyalty and selflessness to one's peers, a key attribute about Maj. Jenrette. Thompson is a political science major.

Cadet Staff Sgt. William Putt, the son of William R. Putt of Warrenton, Va., has been awarded the North Georgia Eagle Leadership Award Scholarship. The cadet who receives this scholarship must be in good standing with the Commandant of Cadets and Professor of Military Science, must be pursuing a commission in the U.S. Armed Forces, and must demonstrate leadership potential and high moral character. Putt is majoring in international affairs.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility purposes (e.g. Braille, large print, audio, etc.), please contact the University Relations department at university.relations@ung.edu or 706-864-1950.