

Martha T. Nesbitt- GVL campus tour

Hi guys! My name is Mikalyn Wilkes, and I am here to introduce to your next stop on the tour, which is the Martha T. Nesbitt building. This building is our newest academic building and the biggest building on the Gainesville Campus. Nesbitt is five stories, but when you walk into the building you are on the third floor, so there are two floors above you and two floors beneath you. Nesbitt is home to a variety of core classes like the college of Education, Business, Communications, and Modern Language. Our coffee shop that brews Starbucks coffee, as well as the Writing Center are located on the 2nd floor. The writing center has professional tutors, student tutors, and a practice presentation room that you can use. In order to work with a tutor, you must make an appointment online. Also, on the second floor is the ACCT #2 room, which is one of the main computer labs for Nesbitt, and there is also an accounting tutor in there.
