

Course Planning Guide: Education Certification Focus

This planning guide provides an example of first-year course work for exploratory students interested in education certification; UNG offers baccalaureate degrees in Elementary and Special Education, Middle Grades Education, Art or Music Education, Secondary Education programs in Biology, Chemistry, or Physics, and Teacher Certification programs in English, History, Mathematics, or Kinesiology.

-Planning Guides do not guarantee course availability and must be used in consultation with your Academic Advisor.

-Always check for pre-requisites.
