

Student Questions?

Dr. Hamid Serri, Assistant Professor
Political Science & Int'l Affairs Dept.
Hansford Hall 313—Dahlonega Campus
706.867.4526
sh.serri@ung.edu

Dr. Jonathan Beall, Assistant Professor
History, Anthropology & Philosophy Dept.
Barnes Hall 302—Dahlonega Campus
706.864.1645
jonathan.beall@ung.edu

Contacts:

College of Arts & Letters

Dr. Edward Mienie

Executive Director for Strategic Studies
Barnes Hall 310—Dahlonega Campus
706.867.4465
edward.mienie@ung.edu

Department of Political Science & International Affairs

Dr. Dlynn Williams, Department Head

Hansford Hall 329—Dahlonega Campus
706.864.1869
dlynn.williams@ung.edu

The University of North Georgia, a regional multi-campus institution and premier senior military college, provides a culture of academic excellence in a student-focused environment that includes quality education, service, inquiry and creativity. This is accomplished through broad access to comprehensive academic and co-curricular programs that develop students into leaders for a diverse and global society. The University of North Georgia is a University System of Georgia leadership institution and is The Military College of Georgia.

Learn more at
ung.edu

If you need this document in another format, please email Andrew.Eade@ung.edu or call 706-864-1628.

Strategic and Security Studies Program

UNG | UNIVERSITY of
NORTH GEORGIA™
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE AND
INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Program Mission

To use the liberal arts to educate and prepare the next generation of Army and civilian leaders in understanding and navigating America's future strategic challenges.

Career Paths

If your goal is to become an Army officer, join a multinational corporation with a focus on geopolitical risk analysis, or gain employment in a national security-related career, this program is for you!

It will give you the knowledge, experience and résumé you need to stand out among your peers. It will provide you with a foundation for strategic thinking and problem-solving: competencies that are absolutely indispensable to solving highly complex security and strategic issues.

Upon graduation, you will be prepared for continued education at the graduate level, or for contributing to the common defense of the United States of America:

1. Public service in the Departments of Defense, State, or Homeland Security.
2. Public service in the intelligence community, such as CIA, DIA or NSA.
3. Policy centers and think tanks such as Center for New American Strategy, Center for Strategic and International Studies, Hoover Institute, or the Institute for Defense Analysis.
4. Private sector jobs in defense industries such as Northrup Grumman, Lockheed-Martin, or multinational corporations doing cyber-security or performing risk assessments.

Concentrations

- Cyber Security
- History
- International Affairs
- Language
- Military Science

Co-curricular opportunities offered to build your résumé and make you highly competitive:

- International Internships
- Study Abroad
- Federal Service Scholarships
- International Security-Related Conferences

Required Courses

- Language up to LANG 2002
- Study Abroad
- History courses covering military history, war and society, and strategy
- Political science courses that explore contemporary security and strategic topics
- Geography course studying geography and war

Plan of Study
www.ung.edu/PSIA