Dual Enrollment Students Estimated Total Cost
eCore Campus
Fall 2026

Dual Enrollment (DE): A student who meets citizenship and Georgia residency requirements and has been classified by Admissions as In-State.

A student who is receiving dual enrollment funding but is also repeating a course or taking a course that is not approved for DE funding should refer to the Total Cost Per Semester column on the chart below.

A student who is not eligible for dual enrollment funding for a given semester – for reasons such as, but not limited to, reaching the 30-credit hour cap - is responsible for in-state tuition and mandatory fees. Please refer to the appropriate campus JE chart for the Total Cost Per Semester (In-State) estimate.

Estimated Tuition Cost Calculations:

For semester courses taken entirely online, please refer to the rates below.

For mixed schedules of face-to-face and online, please refer to the Dual UNG Campus chart.

Mandatory Campus Fees & Book Inclusive Access Fees will be waived for eligible students.

Any additional course related fees must be paid for by the Dual Enrollment student.
