

HISTORY MAJOR

A GUIDE TO STUDY ABROAD

History majors are encouraged to complete a study abroad as part of their degree program. This guide is designed to introduce you to the opportunities that studying abroad brings to your major. A full list of study abroad programs is available on the CGE website: <http://bit.ly/FeaturedProgramsPage>.

MAJOR SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

- While History majors are not required to study abroad, it is highly encouraged.
- The degree program is flexible and allows students to take upper division courses focused in different regions: Asia, Africa, Latin America, Middle East, or World history.

STUDY ABROAD CAN HELP YOU

- Apply concepts learned in class by making connections to the greater world.
- Strengthen your understanding of yourself and challenge your perceptions of the world.
- Enhance employment opportunities by providing real-life experience and adaptability.
- Increase your skills and knowledge while earning academic credit.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- Use federal, state and other financial aid. i.e. Pell, Hope/Zell
- Institutional and national study abroad scholarships available
- CGE/NCS provide assistance in researching and applying for funding sources

"As a historian going to Perú was a dream and a life-changing experience in every way. At first, I was beyond excited to be visiting Machu Picchu and experiencing their culture. However, I did not know I was going to learn more from my own culture, and what Latin America has to offer to the world. Staying with locals was unique, it felt like I was living with my friends and changed any perspectives. I will forever value and cherish the memories and friendships I made on this trip."
