

CHINESE PROGRAMS

A GUIDE TO STUDY ABROAD

Chinese majors are encouraged to complete a study abroad experience as part of their degree program. This guide is designed to introduce you to the opportunities that studying abroad brings to your major. A full list of study abroad programs is available on the CGE website: <http://bit.ly/FeaturedProgramsPage>.

MAJOR SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

- For BA in Modern Languages: Chinese for Global Professionals, attending a UNG approved study abroad program is required.
- For BA in Modern Languages: Chinese Language & Literature, a study abroad experience is not required but strongly recommended.

STUDY ABROAD CAN HELP YOU

- Immerse yourself in the culture living as a local college student.
- Experience the excitement of applying your language skills and improve your language proficiency while earning academic credit.
- Strengthen your understanding of yourself and challenge your perceptions of the world.
- Enhance employment opportunities by providing real-life experience and adaptability.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- Use federal, state, and other financial aid. i.e. Pell, Hope/Zell
- Institutional and national study abroad scholarships available
- CGE/NCS provide assistance in researching and applying for funding sources

"My study abroad experience at Fu Hsing Kang, National Defense University was not easy. However, I will never forget the challenges I have faced there that will forever enrich my life. As well, I cannot be grateful enough for the dozens of people who helped make this unique program possible and all of the things I have learned from those around me culturally, linguistically, and within my academic domain."

Addilyn Koonce, Taiwan

“My time spent in Taiwan was culturally and linguistically enlightening. My Chinese developed eons past my previous expectations. On top of that, the opportunity to be immersed in both military culture and also in the larger Taiwanese culture has been invaluable to bolstering my academic and professional career.”

Dillon Evans, Taiwan
