

SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION, FILM & THEATRE

A GUIDE TO STUDY ABROAD

Students majoring within the School of Communication, Film & Theatre are encouraged to complete a study abroad experience as part of their degree program. This guide is designed to introduce you to the opportunities that studying abroad brings to your major. A full list of study abroad programs is available on the CGE website: <http://bit.ly/FeaturedProgramsPage>.

MAJOR SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

- While these majors are not required to study abroad, it is highly encouraged.

STUDY ABROAD CAN HELP YOU

- Apply concepts learned in class by making connections to the greater world.
- Strengthen your understanding of yourself and challenge your perceptions of the world.
- Enhance employment opportunities by providing real-life experience and adaptability.
- Increase your skills and knowledge while earning academic credit.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- Use federal, state, and other financial aid. i.e. Pell, Hope/Zell
- Institutional and national study abroad scholarships available
- CGE/NCS provide assistance in researching and applying for funding sources

Cost estimates include: tuition, fees, housing, meals, travel, and insurance. Costs are subject to change.

HOW DO I GET STARTED?

1: Plan Early! Investigate Programs

This brochure is a starting point. Check the CGE website for more programs and information.

2: Speak with an Education Abroad Advisor

Education Abroad Advisors are professional staff members that can assist you with the study abroad process. You can schedule a meeting online.

3: Speak with a Professional/Faculty Advisor

Discuss how the program fits into your academic plan. You can find your academic advisor on the Tranguid in Banner.

4: Research Funding

Funding opportunities can be found through the following:

- Financial Aid Office
- Nationally Competitive Scholarships Office
- Center for Global Engagement's Webpage

5: Apply!

6: Pack your bags!

"This changed my plans after graduation and changed the work I'm getting. I'm a lot more confident in my networking skills. The experience blossomed me when it comes to those interactions. I have such a heightened energy after going there, and I want to keep that going. It ignited more passion in me for the work I want to pursue."
