DECEMBER 2024 | EDITION 2

“

Being in a fraternity has not only shown me the importance of brotherhood and building a everlasting bond but also taught me how to be more professional when dealing in business and different organizations. A fraternity is about building future leaders. Whether it be from my fraternity or another Greek organization, I am confident in my communication, leadership, and the ability to build connections with others due to my involvement within a fraternity.

SERVICE

Over Thanksgiving break, our Greek organizations continued to show up and serve the community around them. Pi Kappa Phi volunteered to prepare 4,100 meals at a soup kitchen in Commerce, and Delta Zeta worked to feed 150 families meals for Thanksgiving. We are so proud of our chapters for upholding our values and continually showing their generosity!

LEADERSHIP

The past few weeks, chapters have been working hard to slate new leadership within each organization, and within FSL as a whole. Join us in congratulating the newly selected members of UNG's Interfraternity and Panhellenic Councils! We are confident that these men and women will do great work and will continue to grow and help Greek Life to the best of their ability.
