For other options, please see a complete list on our website.*

After Acceptance

- Successful applicants will receive an acceptance letter by email. They must confirm their acceptance by visiting go.ung.edu/application-status, generally within 2 weeks to ensure adequate time to begin the visa application process. UNG's Center for Global Engagement will send pre-arrival information and instructions for issuance of the I-20 document necessary to attain an F-1 student visa.
 - To be issued an I-20, international applicants who are accepted to the Dahlonega campus must provide bank documentation showing funds of at least $43,000 USD to finance their education.
- International students are required to have health insurance that conforms to the University System of Georgia's criteria and will be billed automatically at the beginning of the semester.

UNG's Dahlonega Campus

- Located about a 1-hour drive north of downtown Atlanta
- Over 150 years old, the Dahlonega campus is one of four UNG campuses that admit international students and is the only residential campus with student housing.
- Only bachelor's and master's degrees are offered on the Dahlonega campus.

UNG's International Student Scholarship

After being admitted to UNG, all international students receive information about how to apply for the International Student Scholarship. The scholarship reduces UNG tuition by approximately $7000 per year. Contact: global@ung.edu for further questions or visit our website.

Center for Global Engagement Services

I-20 Process: The Center for Global Engagement assists students with receiving the I-20 after being accepted for admission to UNG. All admitted students (both new and transfer students) need to submit the following to request an I-20:

- Valid passport
- Financial Affidavit
- Supporting Bank Documentation

Airport Shuttle: CGE offers a pickup and drop-off shuttle from the Airport to Dahlonega campus at the beginning and end of each semester. New students will receive a welcome bag with essentials for their first night in the US, including bedsheets, snacks, and a water bottle.

Orientation: International Student Orientation is mandatory for all new international students and includes a shuttle service to local stores so students can purchase necessary items.

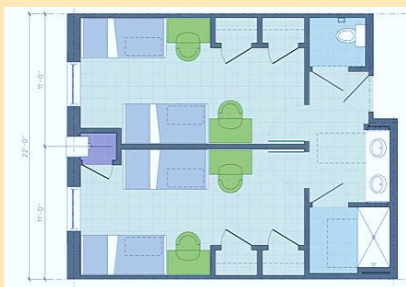

Monthly Activities: Throughout the semester, CGE plans monthly trips to local sightseeing spots and special events for international students to get involved with the local community.

Immigration Advising: CGE offers students immigration advising, help finding employment, getting a driver's license, and much more!

Housing

International students are encouraged to apply to live in UNG's Global Learning Community. This living, learning community is focused on establishing relationships amongst students of varying cultural backgrounds and providing unique programming and events. All residential students must select a meal plan. The application is sent with pre-arrival information after the I-20 process is completed.
