Application to Reproduce Archives, Manuscript, and Special Collections Materials Using a Personal Digital Camera

I, _____, hereby apply to reproduce images or documents from the archives, manuscript, or special collections holdings of Special Collections and Archives at the University of North Georgia, using a personal digital camera. The specific materials I want to reproduce are listed below:

Table with 6 columns: Collection, Box/Folder, Item Description/Title, Date of item, # of pages, Staff Use. The table is currently empty.

I agree to abide by the following rules:

- 1. Reproductions made using personal digital cameras are to be used only for the research or private study of the applicant. If applicants desire to publish images from the archives or special collections holdings of Special Collections and Archives, they must complete Permission to Publish form and pay for publication-quality reproductions of images, which will be produced by library staff.
2. Reproductions made using personal digital cameras may not be made for or donated to other repositories by the applicant without prior written consent of Special Collections and Archives.
3. In the case of a request to photograph an entire copyrighted publication or unpublished work, the applicant must obtain permission from the copyright owner before a copy can be made. The Archives and Manuscripts Department and the Special Collections Department reserve the right to set limits on the number of digital camera reproductions they will allow.

4. No part of textual material reproduced with a personal digital camera may be quoted by the applicant in his own work or elsewhere without permission of the copyright owner. Permission to quote from any part of manuscript materials owned by The University of North Georgia must also be secured from the Dean of Libraries. Clearance of copyright is always the responsibility of the person wishing to publish the materials and is not the responsibility of the staff of the Special Collections and Archives. Proper acknowledgment shall be given for all materials used. In citing manuscript materials located in this library, the form should be as follows: Item, Collection title, Special Collections and Archives, University of North Georgia.
5. Flash may not be used in photographing archives, manuscript, or special collections materials.
6. Library staff reserve the right to prohibit use of digital cameras in the special collections reading area when, in their judgment, such use creates a disturbance for other library patrons. Please set your camera to operate silently, without beeps or other noises.
7. Applicants must follow the library's standard rules for care and handling of archives, manuscript, and special collections materials while using digital cameras. Bound volumes may not be flattened in order to obtain better images. Library staff reserve the right to prohibit use of digital cameras in the special collections reading area when, in their judgment, such use poses risk to the physical preservation of library materials.
8. The applicant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the University of North Georgia, its officers, employees and agents from and against all suits, claims, actions, and expenses arising out of the use of digital camera images produced by the applicant from the archives, manuscript, and special collections holdings of Special Collections and Archives.

NOTICE

Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified by law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order, if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

My signature below indicates that I have read the above rules and the Title 17 U.S. Code copyright notice, and that I agree to abide by these rules.
