Spring 2013 Supplemental Instruction chart depicting the average course GPA's of those who went to SI at least once throughout the semester against those who did not attend SI. On average students who attended SI earned a course GPA .92 higher than those who did not attend.