

In 2021 and 2022, the University System of Georgia trained advisors, investigators, coordinators, panelists, and appellate officers.

They were webinars, and the presentations were not made available. However, they were nearly identical to those conducted in 2020.