In accordance with Board of Regents Policy 4.3.4, all applicants who are accepted for admission or readmission to the University of North Georgia for Fall 2011, or any academic semester thereafter, and who seek to be classified as in-state for tuition payment purposes, will be required to provide validation of residency and lawful presence in both the State of Georgia and the United States. For more information regarding this issue, please refer to the admissions requirements available at ung.edu/admissions.

I understand if I choose the UNG Online option that not all academic programs are available online. Online students are not eligible to register for any on-campus courses, participate in on-campus activities, the Corps of Cadets, or live in residence halls. Online students must successfully complete the Internal Transfer Form and meet all requirements in order to switch to a physical campus. Students who require Learning Support are not eligible to be fully online until Learning Support requirements are satisfied. In compliance with state authorization for the delivery of distance education, UNG online courses, degrees, and certificate programs are not available in some states. Contact an Online Advisor for more information at 706-867-2521.

I understand that any material false statements made knowingly and willfully by me on this application, or any documents attached hereto may, in accordance with O.C.G.A. 16-10-71, which provides that upon conviction, a person who knowingly commits the offense of false swearing shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not less than one nor more than five years, or both, subject me to prosecution in a court of law. Additionally, I further understand that any such false statement may subject me to immediate dismissal from the institution. Further, I certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the information submitted on this application is true and complete. I also understand that non-cadet applications submitted after the application deadline, or after capacity has been met, will be automatically updated to the next available semester.
