IT IS THE APPLICANT'S RESPONSIBILITY to demonstrate that sufficient funding is available to meet all University and living expenses for his/her entire course of study. The University of North Georgia is required by United States government regulations to verify that international students have adequate funding to cover all costs. Therefore, the University of North Georgia issues and I-20 only after this form is completed and returned with the necessary support documents. You will need copies of your financial documents to prove the U.S Consulate that you have sufficient funds, and should therefore keep a copy of this form and all supporting documents.

The current estimate of expenses for one academic year (excluding the Summer Term) of undergraduate study at the University of North Georgia is $39,000 (USD) for bachelor degree study and $29,000 (USD) for associate degree study and $29,000 (USD) for Cadets in the UNG military program. Students who will be accompanied by dependents must have an additional $4,000 per year of support for the first dependent and $2,000 per year for each additional dependent. This is an estimate and subject to change without notice.

INSTRUCTIONS: Provide in sections A and B the name and address of the individuals providing funds for your education. Each sponsor must give the amount that will be provided for the first year and each additional year. If you will be living with a sponsor, that sponsor must complete section A or B, and in the "Amount..." columns, write "HOUSING". Provide in section C dependent information if necessary. If you will be providing some of the educational support yourself, give that information in section D. Also, ALL students must sign and date section D. If you are being supported by your home government or university, this form is not required, but you must provide an official letter stating the terms of sponsorship. A current, original certified bank letter must be provided for each sponsor, indicating the ability to provide the guaranteed support. The bank letter must include, either in U.S. dollars or in the local currency, the amount maintained in your sponsors' bank account(s).
